carried a stone axe and a collection of cleanly gnawed bones. The group prize went to Mr and Mrs H. Meister and Mr and Mrs B. Bolly. They wore costumes depicting the four "Buure" of Swiss Jass cards. In their hands they carried the four emblems.

Aufschnitt was served for supper and was enjoyed heartily by everyone. —H.B.

TARANAKI SWISS CLUB

Steinstossen results: 1st, J. A. Kuriger; 2nd, M. Muller; 3rd, A. Muller.

WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

On February 25th our first picnic was held at Waikanae Beach in splendid weather. Towards lunchtime, more and more people arrived at the beach to enjoy a pleasant day with swimming, games or just to roast in bright sunshine between sand dunes. The proper atmosphere of a Swiss gathering was felt when a slight breeze carried the accordin tunes across the hills "Guete Santig mitenand." Amongst about 50 adults, 26 children of all ages (beginning with 2 months) had a wonderful time in the water and sand.

In the afternoon, the "Steinstossen" Competition was held. Unfortunately the conditions on the half dry sand were unsuitable and the strongest competitors soon felt tired. Towards six o'clock, people started to move, having experienced a wonderful day in perfect conditions.

"Steinstossen" results: 1st, Rolly Studer; 2nd, Roy Sommer; 3rd, Fred Fluehler.

Camping Weekend: Owing to very unusual weather conditions prevailing in Wellington (wet, cold and raining!) the camping weekend planned for Saturday and Sunday, March 10th and 11th, at Kaitoke, was, as could be expected, not very well attended. However, those who did turn up (the hardy types, including children) thoroughly enjoyed themselves, despite feeling more like ducks than picnickers, and a happy time was had by the twenty-odd who attended.

NEWS FROM SWITZERLAND

MARCH OF TELEVISION

Before the end of January 1962, the 200,000th television set was licensed in Switzerland. The 100,000 mark had been reached during the month of April 1960. Consequently the number of licensed Tv sets has doubled in about 20 months.

YEAR WITHOUT STRIKES

For the first time since the institution of official statistics in this field—in 1927 to be precise—no labour conflict of at least a day's duration was recorded throughout the year 1961. In 1927, 34,160 man-days were lost through strikes; most of the collective labour disputes that have occurred since then date back to the slump of 1930 when the figure for Switzerland's loss of man-days amounted to 265,695. In 1930, there were eight disputes, involving 20 firms and the loss of 1016 days.
