Samichlaus, 1 December, Swiss Farm

The most anticipated event of the year. Join us at the Auckland Swiss Farm for a fun family day with special guest Santa. Further details to follow in your inbox or on our facebook page.

Swiss Christmas Carol Singing

Saturday afternoon 14 December, 2pm for 2.15 start, at the Danish Club, 6 Rockridge Ave, Penrose

Each year our small, dedicated group puts on a festive hour of Christmas carols for those who want a hint of nostalgia for a cold, white Christmas in the Alps. Up to you whether you join us in the singing, or just enjoy listening to the familiar tunes, interspersed with a few short musical items on our various flutes. Last but not least, after the singing you will be treated to coffee / tea with delicious homemade 'Weihnachtsguetzli' (Christmas biscuits) like mother used to bake.

Bring a batch of at least 20 homemade 'Guetzli' and get a free entry, or pay a contribution for hall hire: $10 for guests over 16 years, free for younger ones. There may well be biscuits for sale too.

You are welcome to let us know your wish for a particular song. Or better still, perform your own item, or encourage your children to do so.

We look forward to sharing this special time with you, your family and friends. The Swiss lady singers and the Swiss Club Committee

Past Events

Fondue Evening was held on Saturday 21st September at the Matangi Hall. Despite being the night of the first All Blacks World Cup match we still had a great turnout of 140 people including a big group of young children.

As usual the committee had the fondue ready to serve at 7.30pm and everyone got stuck in to enjoy delicious fondue together with home-made bread and a plate of sliced meats. There was plenty for everyone to come back for seconds and even more for some.

After the big stacks of plates and pots were cleared and ready for the dishwasher to start it was time for the medal and trophy presentations. It was great to see a huge age range of recipients from some very young ones to some of our very experienced competitors. Congratulations to everyone – what a great turnout.

Following this, there were several spot prizes to hand out and soon it was time for dessert which included freshly made fruit salad, meringues and cream as well as a huge selection of baking which always seems to disappear quite quickly.

Many thanks to all the helpers on the night and behind the scenes with baking bread, cakes, grating cheese and doing the shopping for the night. Also, many thanks to the bar personnel who seem to be kept busy all night long topping up drinks and clearing away glasses. Thanks to the steriliser in the kitchen, the job of washing glasses has become a lot easier.

Report for the Swiss Cards 2019

We held seven card afternoons again this year, starting from early April to late July 2019. We had a good attendance! This years' winner of the Jassen Cup is Berta Hughes with 81 points; second equal Mathias Seifert and Walter Seifert (75 points) and 4th equal Freida Meier, Heidi Seifert and Alby Schuler (68 points). Congratulations to all of you!!!

We always count the five highest scores of each player out of the seven card afternoons and the Top scorer receives the Jassen Cup for one year to keep, with his or her name engraved on it! This year, it gives me great pleasure to hand over the Cup to Mrs Berta Hughes (well-earned congratulations to Berta!!).

I would also like to thank all our loyal card players for attending this years' cards again! I hope to see you all again next year!

I would like to say a special thank you to: Eddie Fuglistaller for the steady supply of score cards every year. Also many thanks to Frieda Meier who always helps me out with the raffle! It is very much appreciated. Thankyou one and all!!!
Regards, Walter Seifert

Past Events

Our last SwissNest had a French theme: we created the marmites (the traditional casserole cooking pots) which were made so famous at the event of L'Escalade in Geneva. We made them out of papier mache. About 5 of us, including 5-year old Isla, were busy glueing strips of newspaper around a balloon. The finished product will be visible at a later stage. A lot of French was spoken in the process and after a cup of tea and some home-made baking we sat around the table and did a bit of a Jassen workshop, mainly in French, led by Odile who shared her knowledge of some very important 'tricks'. A brief game of skittles offered some diversion while the sun was shining.

With the SwissNest we try and bring together families at the clubhouse to explore the crafts and traditions and languages of Switzerland. It is a very informal gathering every 2nd Saturday of the month, and we invite all families to drop in and join in. A small donation of $5 per family should cover the costs of tea and coffee and some materials. For more information call Trudi on 021 565617 or Anne-Claire 022 0283858. The next SwissNest will now take place on the second Saturday in February 2020 (the 8th).

Our Canton Evening was organised in honour of our new Ambassador Michael Winzag who stems from Graubünden. (As it happened he had not yet arrived but on hearing it he appreciated the gesture). A good bunch of about 30 people gathered and quickly found their mulled wine and a seat for a delicious dinner prepared by Rahel Williams, of course started with the famous Bündnersuppe, followed by the special Engadiner Sausages from Peter the Butcher in Blenheim, accompanied by a delicious Ovenröschti and Rotchrut. Engadiner Nusstorte crowned this lovely meal. Bernie then challenged our knowledge of all things Grison with a well thought out quiz. Thanks to everyone who attended and all the helpers.

A big Thank you to all those who came to our working bee on 19 October, including our youngest helpers we got a lot done, especially around the Bowling alley.

La fête de l'Escalade

Several families celebrated at the clubhouse the failed attempt of the kingdom of Savoy to invade Geneva on 11-12 December 1602. The outer wall was breached during the night with a lone defender sounding the alarm which spread to the city's churches. Acting quickly, Isaac Mercier closed one of two gates in the inner wall. When enemy soldiers entered the second gate, madame Royaume from a window on high dropped a cast iron pot containing hot vegetable soup on their heads, spurring on the Genevans to put the invaders to flight. On 3 November we made vegetable soup, re-enacted the battle, ran a race around the clubhouse, echoing the modern tradition in Geneva, and enjoyed a history lesson from our genevoises, Nathalie and Anne-Claire. Thanks also to Odile. (by Bernie Napp)

Cards Report

Yes, I'm back, after a wonderful three months in Europe, mainly in Switzerland. I didn't climb many mountains, but I swam in many Swiss lakes, and in the Mediterranean. Water temperatures varied between 23 and 30 degrees – I'm still dreaming of it. A big thank-you to Gabrielle who hosted the card players while I was away!

We are an informal group of seasoned card players. We usually meet once a month, at the moment on the last Sunday afternoon, at my place or in the clubhouse, depending on the weather (and the temperature). The usual players are reminded by phone in the week before the Cards Sunday; new players can ring me on 56 28 019. The players usually give a contribution of $ 5 per person; that money goes entirely to the Wellington Swiss Club to help with the general costs and the upkeep of the clubhouse.

There is always coffee and cake – usually in plural, cakes, to keep us going all afternoon – generous contributions from the happy players, plus a home-made Zopf and some real cheese, and a cake or two from me.

Swiss Club News

29th September: Jassen

Some of our keen Jassers were still overseas, and others had other commitments – so we were only six players. How do you play cards with six players? Not a problem; we had two packs of cards and invented the rules as we went. It took a long time for the luckier team to reach 5000 points; coffee and cakes were well deserved! Thank you, Lotti, for your delicious Oepfelwähe!

27th October: Jassen

We decided to play cards on Labour Weekend Sunday, as most of us expected to be home. And so we did. We had two tables of four players; some had only very recently come back from overseas. It was hard work on both tables, but as we don't play too competitively, errors were forgiven, and surprises cherished.

This time a delicious Rhabarberwähe came from Christine; thank you! And an equally delicious Nusstorte from Leezabet – no wonder the Gugelhopf partially survived the afternoon!

Forthcoming Events

The next card Sunday will take place before you can read this in the December/January Helvetia; we'll play cards on 27th November. We'll try and find dates for the Christmas/New Year period; maybe we can have a few impromptu cards afternoons with overseas visitors? It shouldn't be difficult to find enough keen players to have a full table!

Sunday 8 December 2019

SAMICHLAUS * SANTACLAUS * PERE NOEL arrives around 3pm

Saturday 14 December 2019
