Time to read.

Time – An Indispensable Commodity.

You can best see what influence time has on people if you watch people who have no time. Time is a scarce and therefore valuable resource in our society. He or she who uses the railway has time. Time to relax, to reflect, to read, to make new acquaintances, to work, to tackle new tasks. He or she who has time is relaxed and likeable.

Thousands of people pass some of their time with the SBB every day. Therefore, we have asked seven prominent authors from different parts of our country to examine the theme «time passed with the railway». Take your time to read what Peter Bichsel, Etienne Barilier, Anne Cuneo, Anna Felder, Ulrich Knellwolf, Milena Moser and Peter Weber have to tell in their short stories.

We wish you much pleasure and enough time. The journey begins at page 23.
