Ask Elena

... is what we say in the Secretariat for the Swiss Abroad (SSA) whenever a legal or otherwise tricky question comes up. The solution is then usually not far to seek: if the question cannot be answered from memory straight away, Elena reaches unerringly into her well-organized documentation files, or gets advice from the Collection of Federal law books. For really tricky cases, Elena knows immediately who, in the Federal Administration, the Pension Fund, or wherever, can help further. Within a remarkably short time Elena (who hails from the Ticino) has familiarized herself with the problems of the Swiss abroad. Always in a good humour, never ill at ease, Elena is our problem solver on call. Elena Biasca, Licenciata in Law, «belongs» since mid-1986 to the SSA, as Direction assistant. After her studies in Berne, she worked for two years at the Federal Department of Justice and Police as legal assistant. This experience in the Federal Administration stands her in good stead, particularly when it is a question of giving effect to legislation for the benefit of the Swiss abroad. SR

Do you Remember...

our offer of a holiday in Switzerland for Swiss children aged between 7 and 15, living abroad?

If your child is a Swiss national or if his/her mother is Swiss by birth and has retained her Swiss nationality, we can offer your child unforgettable holidays during the summer of 1987.

In any case it is not too late to obtain the relevant registration papers - either from the Swiss representation of your area or directly from:
