Soliswiss Insurance Plans: A sustained demand

Whether it is health insurance or retirement annuity plans, Soliswiss offers have attracted a rising interest. Since 1996, the number of health insurance contracts subscribed to, through Soliswiss, have risen steadily. The solutions Soliswiss offers as alternatives to the voluntary OASI have also been gaining a steady following.

Health Insurance

The European Union: Bilateral agreements have made health insurance compulsory for all, and have specified the countries for insurance of non-active persons. The two offers from Soliswiss are recognized by Santésuisse as authorized alternative solutions to the compulsory insurance.

Moreover, Soliswiss offers represent an advantageous solution for self-employed persons who are obliged to obtain a private insurance.

Other Countries: Many countries in other parts of the world do not offer sufficient or reliable medical insurance cover to foreign nationals.

Soliswiss KPT: Various types of insurance plans make it possible to adapt the level of insurance to specific individual requirements. It is possible to opt for an unlimited coverage of medical costs, anywhere in the world, at a reasonable rate. Age limit for joining: 65 years.

Soliswiss IHI: A very good worldwide private insurance cover. Age limit for joining: 79 years.

Conditions: Since these insurance covers are private, the insurers only accept persons enjoying good health at the time of joining. Thereafter, however, the insurance is guaranteed for life, without the possibility of the insured person losing his coverage.

Long-term Security

Retirement Annuity: The most common objective is to set up an additional, or a main retirement annuity. This opportunity is particularly important under current circumstances, due to the restrictions on subscribing to the voluntary OASI. Soliswiss offers a vast range of solutions on the basis of annual or single premiums, in various currencies.

Disability Pension: It is generally possible to obtain disability insurance combined with a retirement investment plan.

Soliswiss Advantages

Consultation and advice is always free of charge. In both the areas of health insurance and long-term security, Soliswiss members benefit from significant advantages. First and foremost, as a cooperative with a non-profit aim, Soliswiss works exclusively in the interest of its members. It makes a regular comparison of the different offers available in the market, in order to select the best ones for its clients, with absolutely no bias.

Due to the volume of its activities, the cooperative is in a good position to obtain especially favorable insurance conditions (general conditions, premiums).

Finally, Soliswiss offers free political risk insurance to its members who subscribe to a health insurance or long-term security contract through Soliswiss. They also benefit automatically from a Soliswiss savings account under advantageous conditions.
