CSA. Autumn Session

Report on the meeting of the Council Of The Swiss Abroad in St.Gallen, 20 August 2010

This year's Congress of the Swiss Abroad in St Gallen from August 20 - 22, 2010 dealt mainly with the representation of the Swiss from Abroad in the Council, and with the proposed new Law regarding the Swiss Abroad. Federal Councilor, Mrs Calmy-Rey, who was present at the congress, emphasised strongly her support for a new law, which is in preparation and under review. She also stated that the current 140 Delegates from Abroad and from Switzerland must be elected in a democratic manner to truly represent the electorate. That means, in her words, that in the proposed new law, only those Swiss from Abroad who are registered to Vote in Switzerland can elect those delegates. How the 20 Delegates from Switzerland (now appointed) will be elected and by whom, remains open. There was quite some discussion on the election process and the ASO has asked for a legal opinion from a constitutional lawyer on various questions arising from the proposed reform.

Electronic voting for the Swiss Abroad was again a topic of discussion and some progress was reported by some Cantons. Mrs Calmy - Rey provided information that it is the intention of the Federal Council to concentrate all matters concerning the Swiss Abroad in (her) Department of Foreign Affairs. Also, more Honorary Consuls would be appointed in future.

Finally, the new internet platform for all Swiss Abroad: Swiss-Community.org was launched to great acclaim by the Delegates.

The date/place for the the 2011 Congress : 26 - 28 August in the Tessin, either in Lugano or in Locarno.

Beat Knoblauch, CSA Delegate

Swiss Review. Meeting

Interesting facts about the Swiss Review, how you make sure you still receive the Swiss Review, and outlook for the year ahead.

This years meeting of the Regional Editors was held at the Swiss Printers headquarters in St.Gallen.

As you already know, the budget cuts from the government were a big challenge for the Swiss Review and there was a push to move as many people to the electronic version in order to cut printing costs. As per mid-2010, there are now over 125,000 recipients which signed up for the email version only, so there are only about 245,000 printed issues remaining. This reduction plus other cost-saving measures now should allow for at least 5 issues for 2011 again, which is a small victory in its own.

The most important thing is, if you have registered to receive the email version only, your email address which you have registered with the Consulate should be up-to-date. So if you change your email address please let them know.

Even if we do not encourage this, in case you wish to opt in to receive the printed version again, you can do so by visiting www.swissabroad.ch

Solothurn: Welcome

Dear fellow-citizens abroad

The Canton of Solothurn is delighted to welcome you to its SwissCommunity pages. The Canton is a tempting place to undertake a voyage of discovery: blending idyllic landscapes along the Aare with the heights of the Jura range, the hilly Schovavobenberg and the rustic Buchenberg.

We wish you a good journey on the Solothurn pages of SwissCommunity and "bis bald" - see you soon in our Canton.

SAAN continues to lead and facilitate negotiations for an agreement supporting the bilateral exchange of early career-researchers between the leading Australian and Swiss universities

SAAN supports the re-activation of an existing Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNF), the Australian Research Council (ARC) and the National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC).

SAAN leads the organisation of the forthcoming visit of Prof Dieter Imboden (President, Swiss National Science Foundation, SNF) and Prof Ulrike Landfester (President, International Co-operation, SNF) to Sydney, Canberra and Melbourne. On this occasion, SAAN is arranging bilateral meetings between the representatives of SNF, Australian universities, the Australian Academy of Science and commonwealth funding agencies for research (NHMRC, ARC). In addition, SAAN is organising a lecture at the Lowy Institute for International Affairs in Sydney and, together with the Walter and Eliza Hall Institute for Medical Research, a symposium on "Bilateral scientific opportunities between Switzerland and Australia" in Melbourne.

The Museum of the Swiss Abroad, located at the heart of International Geneva, is a very special place for the Swiss - abroad or at home - and for friends of Switzerland everywhere. Its collections are focussed on remarkable Swiss who have left the country over the centuries and have left traces in their new surroundings. But in so doing, the Museum also explains the main features of Swiss identity and Swiss history - always a necessary endeavour!

The Museum has undergone extensive changes both in the presentation of its rooms and in the treatment of its key themes. At present, the Canton of Geneva, who is the owner of the beautiful Penthes estate, is evaluating whether a new long-term lease shall be granted to the Museum and its conference centre and restaurant. Other uses, of course, can always be envisaged, particularly in the light of its excellent location. These negotiations may well turn out to be quite difficult: you can be assured that we shall defend our «jewel» vigorously.

What we do need are expressions of support, especially emanating from the Swiss abroad themselves; what we also need is support of a more material kind to prepare for our future: new exhibitions, new publications, new acquisitions ...

With our warmest thanks for your interest and for your help!

October is a month of celebrations for members of our choir: Raphael, the newest and youngest choir member is getting married, and we are having a 65th birthday party for Chrigel, Marco and Erwin. On 28 November, we will entertain the elderly residents of the Tabulam & Templer and Martin Luther Homes, in combined performances with the Companion Singers and the Swiss Folk Dance Group Alpenrose.

We wish all our friends and supporters an enjoyable Festive Season and a prosperous New Year. Interested in singing among a circle of friends (and perhaps participating with us at the Swiss Yodelling Festival in Interlaken next year)? Then come and join us at one of our enjoyable Wednesday evening practice sessions at Marco's place.

Gruezi, bonjour, buongiorno, g'day to all Swiss in South East Queensland

We once again had a beautiful 1st of August Celebrations in Petrie and I was able to speak to a lot of members on the day. A huge thank you to all the helpers who contributed to a successful day.

Due to unforeseen circumstances we had to postpone the AGM to 30 October and we hope that many of you will be able to come along to the meeting. So it happens that I am once more writing a few words in this Swiss Review, although I had already announced that I will retire from the President's role.

The year will once again close with the Christmas celebrations and Samichlaus will be visiting both Brisbane and the Gold Coast at the beginning of December. Please register your attendance online, so we have enough presents for all the kids.
