KEMP - FISCHER.

Wedding bells rang merrily last month in the Bay of Plenty when Elsie Anna, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fischer of Fortunes Rd, Paeroa, and Vernon Kemp of Gisborne, were united in matrimony. Two sisters of the bride officiated as bridesmaids, while the youngest sister acted as train bearer and flower girl. The bridegroom was attended by the bride's brother, Louis Fischer.

The wedding took place at St. John's Church, Whakatane. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father D. Leen, the parish priest.

The wedding breakfast took place at the Parish Hall, where Mr. and Mrs. R. Fischer received about 50 guests. The Swiss community was well represented by visitors from Waihou, Springdale, Tauranga, Opotiki and Wainui.

The usual toasts were honoured, among them being "The Swiss in N.Z." proposed by Father D. Leen and responded to by John Steiner, of Waihou.

The HANDÖRGELI was the missing link on this auspicious occasion. Evidently the HANDÖRGELERS must still have sore fingers from the Te Aroha weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp will make their future home at Paeroa.

Our very best wishes go to the two happy couples. May happiness, good health and prosperity be their lot.

O B I T U A R Y.

MR. JULIUS MAURER.

With the death of Mr. Julius Maurer, our Society has lost a very valuable and esteemed member who has always taken a very keen interest in the welfare of his fellow countrymen. He was born in Schaffhausen in 1865, where he received his education, and also learnt his trade as Watchmaker and Jeweller. As a young man he emigrated to the Argentine, where he spent 7 years in the pursuit of his trade in Buenos Aires. He then went to Australia where he married. In 1902 he arrived in New Zealand and settled at Palmerston North. Four years later he moved to Whangarei, where he started his business in Manse Street. These premises he occupied until his death. His wife predeceased him two years ago, and he never recovered from this loss.

Mr. Maurer always took a great interest in sport, especially bowls, and his genial and happy nature made him a general favourite everywhere.

Two daughters, Mesdames S. D. Alcock of Palmerston North, and A. Sargent of Manse St. Whangarei, and one son, Mr. W. Maurer of Whangarei, mourn their loss.

As a staunch patriot he always kept himself well informed of the happenings in his native land, and his liberality and kind nature was well known amongst his compatriots. He was greatly interested in the progress of our Society, and the "Helvetia." Thanks to his generosity in presenting us with a considerable number of German books, we were able to inaugurate our library.

It gives us great pleasure to announce the intention of Mr. W. Maurer to carry on in his father's place as a member of our Society.
