REGULAR SHORTWAVE BROADCASTS FROM SWITZERLAND.

The Special First-Sunday-of-the-month-Broadcast, on July 6, 1941:

Due to atmospheric disturbances Switzerland like many other continental stations could not be received.

Daily Broadcasts from Switzerland:

The daily shortwave broadcasts on meter-band 48.66 from Switzerland are now coming in very well, although there are usually more static disturbances on the 48 shortwave band than on other meter-bands, which frequently spoil the otherwise excellent reception. Switzerland can now be heard daily on the 48 meter-band (48.66) in the morning at 8.40 a.m. until 9.15 a.m. or thereabouts, and again in the evening from 4.40 p.m. to 5.15 p.m. The broadcasts bring the daily news from Switzerland and abroad, and there is also a good deal of music.
