Chleider machet Lüüt.

Das alte Spröchwort gelt no hüüt, schöni Chleider machet Lüüt, in ere wiisse Weste und im Flügelfrack, uufbloose wie en Dudelsack, und met à me paar g'streifte Hosestösse, dolcha me de Lüüte Respekt iiflösse, en Angströhre of em Chopf, ond en Vatermörder en de Hals, du liebi Zit, wäs bruucht's do all's, en uuffälligi Gravatte, wo mer vo wiitem g'sieht, jo so en Uusröstig, so öppis zieht, ä feini Armbanduhr am Rist, a dicki Zigarre im Muul, das mer weiss, was hine und vorne ist, fein uufpotzt und rasiert, das ist was de Lüüte imponiert, aber eis ist sicher, das liit of d'r Hand,
's'ist nöd alles Gold i so me Gwand, öppé ä mol ist's Herz vo Stei, de Schädel hohl, ond d'Nase rot vom Alkohol, au sieht mer öppé eine i me Dusel, vom allzuvièle Bundesfusel, so eine lueget denn nöd so guet, met runde Füess und Oel am Huet, ond Dame erst, or de Stross, wie chömmets dähär, i Pelz iig'wicklet, wie en Bär, oder en Fochs über d'Achsle, komplet und ganz, Chopf, Füess, und so en schöne Schwanz, im Konzert und of em Ball, im Theater überall, höchi Absätz, langi Jeppe, G'sichter wiiss wie Milchspoppe, alles uusgrechnet ganz exakt, une z'viel und obe nackt, ä Muusloch vorne i de Schlappe, ond die g'molete Sppechlappe, glänzegi Brosche, Ring und Schnalle, so eiri muess d'r doch uuffalle, das ist was sie wänd die Lüüt, sös nötzti de Schmuck jo suuter nüt.

COMMUNISTS LOSING MORE GROUND.

The recent election of the Grand Council of Neuchatel resulted in a true debacle for the communists. THE "SECHSELÄUTEN" - ZURICH'S GREAT SPRING CELEBRATION.

Zurich's traditional "Sechseläuten" celebration - the "six o'clock chimes" - dates back more than 600 years and its popular appeal is as strong as ever. At one time Zurich's craftsmen and tradesmen were organized in guilds and these governed the town from 1336 onwards. Every year, on the Monday following the Spring equinox, the bells of the Grossmünster pealed out for the first time after the Winter months to tell the craftsmen that at 6 p.m. the day's work was over. It was customary on that day for the members of the guilds to meet round the festive board at their respective guild house and, at the first stroke of the bell, to drink a toast to the prosperity of the town and district of Zurich and thus to celebrate the return of Spring. The craftsmen's guilds are still flourishing societies, some of them owning old and venerable guild houses.

"Sechseläuten" was celebrated this year on April 24th and 25th. On Sunday, the 24th, a long procession of children, thousands of them, of all ages, dressed up in historical and traditional folk costumes - wound its way through the streets of the town gay with flags and bunting. Included in the procession was a cart bearing the figure symbolising the past Winter, the "Böögg," an effigy several yards high and covered with cotton wool, destined to be burned on the following day when the grown-ups held their celebrations.

Monday, April 25th, was the day of the great historic procession. The members of the 24 guilds still extant, in their traditional and elaborate costumes, some on foot and some on horseback, made their way with their guild emblems, flags and lanterns, their carts, carriages and bands through streets hung with blue and white flags. And the entire population, together with thousands of spectators from outside the City, lined the route. The procession finally gathered round a large lawn in the centre of the City where the "Boogg" stuffed with fireworks, was perched on a high pole over a gigantic pile of brushwood. On the stroke of six, the brushwood was ignited, the bells of all the churches in the town pealed out, and the picturesque horsemen of the mounted guilds galloped around the blazing pyre. When the flames licked up to the "Boogg," and this symbolic effigy, amid the bursting of fireworks, exploded into a thousand pieces, then Winter was well and truly over in Zurich.
