NEWS FROM SWITZERLAND

Swiss Gymnasts at Olympic Games.

Swiss gymnasts did well at the recent Olympic Games at Helsinki by carrying off a total of 34 medals—11 gold 15 silver and eight bronze. Totals for other countries included Finland, 19; Czechoslovakia, 16; and Italy and Germany, 12 each. In the compulsory events Switzerland came second with 281.85 points. First was Russia with 284.35 points, and others in the first four were Finland (280.45) and Germany (279.30). Switzerland's Stalder gained the best individual result with 57.15 points. Behind him came three Russian athletes, the first two of which gained 57.00 points each, and a Czech athlete who had the same number of points (56.60) as another Swiss, Tschabold.

In the optional events Russian gymnasts were in the lead, and were awarded a total of 574.40 points. Switzerland came second with 567.55, followed by Finland and Germany. In individual results two Russians took the lead, while three Swiss took third, fifth and eighth places.

One of the Swiss gymnasts, Walter Lehmann, a world champion, was injured during training and could not take part in the Games.

Swiss gymnasts have a proud and distinguished Olympic record. At Amsterdam in 1928 their team came first, and was placed second at Berlin in 1936 and at London in 1948. Switzerland was awarded third place at Paris in 1924.

Switzerland's star marksman, Auguste Hollenstein, won a world record at the world Shooting Championships at Oslo last month. The final result showed Hollenstein first with 1123 points (in three positions—standing 359, kneeling 376 and lying 388). Taitto (Finland) was second with 1121 points, and Robert Burchler (Switzerland) third with 1121 points.

Result in order of countries were: 1. Switzerland, 5540 points (individual figures—Hollenstein 1123 (world record), Burchler 1121, Horber 1108, Huber 1099, and Grunig 1089); 2. Sweden, 5489 points; 3. Finland, 5481 points; 4. Norway, 5410 points; 5. United States, 5405 points; 6. Yugoslavia, 5343 points; 7. Argentine, 5304 points; 8. Denmark, 5195 points; 9. Egypt, 4943 points.

The Jungfrau Railway.

On Switzerland's National Day 40 years ago—August 1st, 1912—a simple ceremony took place to mark the opening of the Jungfrauoch railway station, the highest in Europe. The entire Jungfrau railway was built between 1896 and 1912 and opened by stages. The Kleine Scheidegg-Eigergletscher section was inaugurated in 1898, followed by Rotstock in 1899, Eigerwand in 1903, Eismeer in 1905 and Jungfrauoch in 1912. The hard struggle against the rock produced untold difficulties, for the whole of the line between Eigergletscher and Jungfrauoch passed through a five-mile long tunnel
