WEDDING BELLS

The recent wedding of Miss Eveline Kuffer to Mr Erich Flueck took place at St. Aidan's Church, in Remuera. The bride, who was given away by Mr Peter Grossman, wore a most elegant threequarter length gown of shantung silk, a fingertip threequarter length veil, held by a corona of pearls, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Molly Saniora, was wearing a street length dress of pale pink delustred satin with a bouquet of pale pink roses and a spray of lovely flowers in her hair. The best man was Mr Peter Ryf.

Miss Eveline Kuffer, who arrived only very recently in New Zealand by plane, comes from Boudry, Neuchatel, and Erich Flueck, who has been in New Zealand for about one year, is from Bassersdorf, Zuerich.

The reception was held at the "Sorrento" and after an excellent cold buffet was served, Miss Molly Saniora gave a most charming performance of the National Samoan Dances in honour of the bride. Later on, the Swiss Band and also the Trio of the "Sorrento" soon brought everybody to the dance floor and it was altogether a very happy and gay wedding-party until early in the morning.

The Committee of the Auckland Swiss Club wishes the young couple the very best for their future. —H.B.M.
