BEST WISHES FOR A HAPPY JOURNEY

THERE IS AN AIR of excitement amongst our people, an anticipation of great things to happen in a rapidly approaching climax—the departure from this fair land for a holiday in Switzerland: the imminent meeting with loved ones and old friends.

To most of them this is the first and only time they will have the good luck to enjoy this visit, in many instances made possible only through some personal sacrifice and special effort.

It is impossible for the ones who are, through their personal circumstances, unable to make the journey, not to take part in the general excitement and to get the best out of it is to go with them in spirit and so share their joy with them.

Shared joy is doubled joy, and then when they return to us and we hear from them all about their experiences we are then able to form as vivid a picture as if we were there too.

To one and all of them we wish a safe return home to New Zealand.
