TARANAKI

SHOOTING WEEKEND - NOVEMBER 29 - DECEMBER 1

Over the last weekend in November our club was host to a group of 28 shooters and their wives from Switzerland.

On Friday evening they arrived by bus from Wellington in Hawera where our President greeted them with the Swiss Flag and Alphornmusic.

On Saturday, a beautiful clear crisp morning greeted the visitors. The menfolk went to shoot at the rifle-range to measure their skills against our members.

While the men filled the air with their shooting noise (pardon me - music), the ladies boarded a bus and went on a sightseeing tour around the mountain, with stops for shopping, sightseeing and lunch.

A meal with members of the Club at the Ashleigh Lodge ended a day full of rich memories.

On Sunday the 'tourists' visited a dairy farm in Kaponga where they learnt a lot about farming in Taranaki. After an excellent lunch at the Mountain House they visited Margrith's Begonia Garden.

A potluck tea at the Clubhouse with members of our club was the highlight of the day.

After an excellent meal Paul Káser, the organiser of this trip, handed out medals, cups and lots of other prizes to the shooters and the ladies of the shooting club. He especially honoured Len Chamberlain, our former president, without him we would not have our Clubhouse.

After the official part Zeno and Peter played lovely music which made the legs go dancing.

It was after midnight when we said goodbye to our new friends and sent them on their way.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY - DECEMBER 7

Our Club is certainly not dying out. About 40 children eagerly awaited the arrival of Father Christmas. He arrived in time on the back of a Ute, his sleigh must have broken down on the way from the South Pole. The children greeted him with a song, although it required quite a bit of help from their parents. Each one was then given a present and a special Swiss chocolate. A bowl of ice cream with jelly was much appreciated after Father Christmas had left the hall accompanied by another song.

NEW YEAR'S EVE

About 60 people braved the rain and turned up for our Sylvester Party. A lovely Tombola with more than 40 prizes enticed everybody to spend a few dollars. A few games helped loosen the atmosphere and brought everybody onto the dance floor. The band, hired on very short notice, played lovely music but very few people took advantage of it.

After midnight a lovely supper was served.

ANNUAL PICNIC

Taranaki certainly knows how to treat its visitors. Despite a very wet summer we managed to put it right for the picnic.

A beautiful Saturday greeted our friends from Wellington. After a barbecue lunch at the Clubhouse, followed by coffee and cakes, all the competitors went down to business. Home teams usually have an advantage and so it was that Taranaki won all four games. Thank you Wellington, for a fair competition.

By the time the first visitors arrived at the clubgrounds everything was ready. The flags were gently swaying in the light breeze, the sawdust patch surrounded by haybales awaited the Schwingers, the bike was fuelled up and the beer was sitting on ice. The hot weather brought lots of members, friends and visitors to Kaponga.

Children's races were held in the morning and the youngsters really put their hearts into their legs. The lollie-scramble proved very popular and so was the bottle fishing and the ride on the bike.

At lunchtime the committee had all hands full selling barbecued cervelats and Bratwuerste. They were very well appreciated.

The highlight of the day was once again the Schwinger. A fierce battle waged between two tourists, but was eventually won by Philippe Bise from Frybourg; 2nd Hermann Strebel from Aargau; 3rd Mark Prentice from Taranaki; 4th Armin Leuthard from Aargau.

The Risi Cup for Steinstossen was won by P. Hardegger; winner in the ladies section was B. Baker. The raffle was won by F. Suter; 2nd A. Schuler; 3rd A. Cruickshank; 4th A. Imlig.
