WELCOME TO THE FIRST EDITION OF THE NEW LOOK HELVETIA

Times are changing and like everything else in life, a magazine must go along with the trend. So your new Swiss Society Committee decided to modernise the presentation of the HELVETIA magazine, to change its format to allow a better lay-out and the introduction of photos to brighten up the pages. Over the next few months, new columns will be introduced to bring up a variety of subjects so that all readers will find something of interest to them in this magazine.

The committee and the editor's aims are to make this magazine as lively and interesting as possible so that HELVETIA will really become the true link between the various clubs and all Swiss people in New Zealand. We trust that you will like the new look HELVETIA and that you will give it your fullest support.

EDITOR'S NOTES

Because of the large volume of contributions received for this month's issue, several new columns and projects had to be left out and will appear in the August issue. Look out for your August issue, it will be a bumper one.

Also we wish to emphasise to all Clubs that we would appreciate it from now on if they could send us some photos with their reports about their venues and activities. It would enhance the magazine and make the reports much more interesting.

The Editor wishes to thank the past Editor and the Printers from Taranaki for their valued cooperation in the transfer of the operation to Auckland, the Embassy of Switzerland for the material they are putting at the Editor's disposal and all the Swiss Clubs for their prompt dispatch of their respective Club news.
