MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

to all readers, subscribers and supporters of the Swiss Society of New Zealand and the Helvetia Magazine.

With all our best wishes for a prosperous 1994, your Swiss Society Committee.

EDITORIAL

It has been reported to your Editor that some members feel that the Helvetia magazine gives too much prominence to news from the Auckland Swiss Club in comparison to the space allocated to the other Clubs.

The Editor wishes to emphasise to all readers and Club members throughout New Zealand that space in the Helvetia magazine is freely available for Club news items without restriction. All club news items sent to the Editor are printed irrespective as to which Club they come from. If Auckland seems to get the lion's share, it is simply because that club has done away with its own newsletter and fully uses the Helvetia magazine for communication with its members. This was and still is the basic idea of the New Helvetia and every Swiss Club in New Zealand has been invited to do the same.

That some Clubs still prefer to produce their own newsletters and only send a minimum of news items to the Helvetia is very regrettable as it costs the Clubs and the Society, for a start, twice the postage to keep in touch with their members.

Your Editor has a totally unbiased approach to the presentation of Club news in the Helvetia. Any Club news items sent in have always been printed and will continue to be printed in the future as they have precedence over other articles. Space will always be made available. You can also send us your own Club's logo if you have one, plus photographs, cartoons, funny happenings in your club and anything else that will make your Club news items more attractive and interesting to read.

The space is there for every Club and it is up to each individual Club to make the best use of it.
