the Swiss Society, Mr. Ernst Thurnheer and Mrs. Thurnheer.

Club President, Mr. Herbert Staheli, welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Thurnheer, as well as guests who had travelled from Taranaki and Auckland and members and friends of the Hamilton Club. He wished everyone an enjoyable evening.

When the idea of a Jubilee was first discussed, it was felt by the Club Committee that, because of the type of function, this evening should be attended by as many people as possible. Therefore, as a way of returning some of our accumulated funds back to the people who have supported the Club over the years, it was decided to subsidise the evening to keep the ticket price down.

It seems that our theory succeeded, as initially we expected approx 200 - 220 people but instead received an overwhelming response of 280 people.

This then caused a bit of a headache as to how we would fit everyone in, as well as ensure that everyone could see the entertainment. But, in typical Swiss fashion, we managed to overcome this problem reasonably well.

The caterers also set a new record. Their highest number of guests to date was around 200 - until we came along! But they could be justifiably proud, as the dinner was delicious and enjoyed by all.

Entertainment was also not lacking, with the Swiss-Kiwi Yodel Group and music group. We were able to enjoy several songs, a lovely duet, alphon blowing and playing of the "Hackbrett". During a break, we were also given a great performance of "Fahnen-schwingeren" by a long-standing Club member, Mr. Joe Egger. This was followed by another, more light-hearted item, by the Yodel Group.

This wonderful entertainment was followed by a short address by our President, Herbert Stäheli, and then by the Ambassador. Mr. Thurnheer commented that if the Club continued in its same vein in the future, it would one day surely be able to celebrate its 100th Jubilee. Well, that may be, but I think we'll leave that one to our grandchildren!

A mouth-watering Jubilee Cake was then presented in the form of a delicious "Zugerkirschtorte", made by Werner Burri. Christine Stäheli and Charlie Waldvogel (without their prior knowledge), being two members of the original founding committee of the Hamilton Swiss Club in 1956, were then invited to come forward to cut this cake, which afterwards became the highlight of the dessert selection.

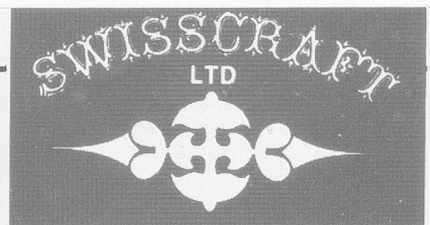

After dessert, with the formal part of the evening completed, there was still plenty of dancing, traditional folk music and time to catch up with distant friends.

Earlier in the day, we had secretly baited some places in the room, and for the fortunate people who were sitting or standing in these places, there was a spot prize. Several draws of ticket numbers were also made with further prizes for the lucky ticket-holders. Doris, Heidi, Erika E. and Erika C. also enthusiastically sold raffle tickets, the big prize being a mystery trip for two. This raffle was drawn later in the evening, and won by Yea Young Lee of Cambridge, a friend of two of our members. Miss Lee collected her prize and on being well applauded and congratulated on her lucky win, could not understand why people were making such a "fuss" over winning a travel-bag! Suffice to say that she eventually looked into the bag the next day and discovered the ticket for the mystery trip! It seems several people simply bought raffle tickets, but did not know what the prize would be. I'm sure there will be a number of people wanting to accompany Miss Lee on her travel, and we all wish her a lovely trip.

Later in the evening, Rinaldo Rust entertained us with a very humorous "Schnitzelbank".

versary, a souvenir booklet had been compiled. This unenviable task was undertaken by Mr. Rinaldo Rust. It covers many of the events of the past forty years, as well as lists the names of past and present members who have all in some way contributed to the success of our Club, be it in organising, catering or simply attending our functions. This booklet is a reminder of our history and I know that it will be regarded as such, and treasured for many years to come.

As is usual at such a function, time passes all too quickly, and all things must come to an end. So, at well after 1.00am we had to call it a night, but the memories will last for a long time to come.

We give special thanks to everyone who helped in planning and organising this Jubilee: to the Yodel and Music groups for their superb entertainment and performances, to Joe Egger for his traditional "Fahnenschwingen", to Rinaldo Rust for the professional production of the souvenir booklet, and to our guests of honour, Mr. and Mrs. Thurnheer, for making the long trip from Wellington to be with us. To all our guests from other Clubs or parts of the country, members and friends, we say thank you for coming and supporting our Club. The success of a function such as this is ultimately reliant on the people attending and all these people have ensured that our 40th Jubilee became an enjoyable and memorable evening.
