TARANAKI SWISS CLUB

Past Events

On the 14th of April, our card afternoons started ... sadly a few people were away, and therefore there weren't many of us present. However, we all enjoyed good games. Biggest oopsy of the day went to yours truly ... listening to Erna and of course trusting her judgement ... well, all I can say "never again"!!! I was very, very fortunate to have a nice, understanding partner ... thank you Robert, I was very thankful!!! Results of the day were – 1st Albi Schuler, 2nd Robert Buhler and 3rd Margrit Dudli, with the booby going to Joe Buhler. The raffle winners were Margrit Dudli (twice) and Walter Seifert ... must have been your lucky day, Margrit!!! Hopefully, we get a few more participants next week.

The second afternoon's attendance on 21st April was much better and it was great having more people to play with and against. The winner was Marianne Drummond, second Myrtha Seifert and third equal were Joe Buhler and Ruedi Benkert. The booby prize was shared by Marlies Hebler and Albi Schuler ... hey, the luck or the skill must have deserted you this week Albi!!! The lucky raffle winners were Walter Seifert, Daniel Drummond, Frieda Meier and Marlies Hebler. Mark also held a shoot, and had a few participants in the wet weather. The shooters and jassers all enjoyed a delicious afternoon tea, after which several people continued to play cards ... hard luck player of the day went to Walter, who announced that his team had won the game, only to find out that he was four points short!!! Better luck, or better counting, next time Walter!!! The only consolation being that your whole table laughed about it, eh?!!! We've had no takers for the board games, so if anyone has another idea for the non-jassers, please let us know.

We held our fondue evening on 4th of May with 130 people enjoying a fabulous fondue, cervelats and salads. By all the favourable comments, the meal was thoroughly enjoyed. Many thanks to all those who cooked, cleaned, and served. Many thanks to the musicians for the great music, as well as the ladies who made beautiful grocery parcels for the raffle. The lucky winners were Jennifer Bosch, Ruedi Benkert, Reg Tecofsky, Hans-Peter Ludi, Yvonne Werder (twice ... very lucky lady!!!), Mathias Seifert, Gary Preston, Ernst Denzler, and Vreni Kull. Grateful thanks to everyone who attended to ensure a wonderful evening was had.

WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

Past events

24 March: Eggs Dyeing

We did the traditional eggs painting, using onion skins. Trudi was not able to help this year, but luckily Petra came, who is an expert as well. We had boiled the onion skins the night before.

Swiss club news

There were some broken eggs, but this year I was somewhat wiser than last year and made sure I did not throw away the broken eggshells in the clubhouse bin, only to be found weeks later, in an undisclosed state.

7th April: Jassen

Well, that's what was intended. The weather forecast was not very inviting; nevertheless I tried to find players for our gmütlich Jass afternoon. Soon I found out that some weren't here, some had left for Switzerland already, some had other commitments.

It looked like one table only, so I decided we could play at my place, where I could guarantee for cozy warm venue. But then another potential jasser couldn't come, and another had to cancel – we were down to two.

So I exvited the last two (I know this isn't a word, but that's exactly what I did: Instead of inviting them I exvited them) and had a quiet afternoon all by myself, near the fire, and the cake went to the freezer. tb

20th April: AGM

This year, we had our AGM in the afternoon, so that members living further away could attend. We had some big topics to discuss, and it was important that we reached a quorum (which we did!). We discussed the five year plan and financial options, and ideas of events for the coming year.

The committee was re-elected, with Mark stepping down, and Jeanine Macdonald being voted in. Welcome Jeanine! We now have a committee of seven members.

Some members played musical chairs, with Odile moving out of the secretary position and into the vice-president chair, and Nathalie becoming our new secretary. Murray stays president, Craig treasurer, with Pitsch, Peter and Jeanine as members. John Jordan is still our rifle master.

The new committee is now as follows:

President: Murray Simons
 Vice-president: Odile Stotzer
 Secretary: Nathalie Leamy
 Treasurer: Craig Press

Committee Members:

Peter Hynes
 Pitsch Leiser
 Jeanine Macdonald

Rifle Master: John Jordan

5th May : Jassen at the Clubhouse

More luck this time! We had two tables, thanks to two very generous ladies who didn't really want to play but played to make up the numbers, as two keen players weren't able to make it; one had sudden work commitments, the other one hadn't recovered from a fall. Gueti Besserig!

The players decided they had enough medals at home already and it would be more fun to play 'normal', not according to the Society Competition Rules, and so we had a pleasant afternoon – with fresh cake, not the one that went into the freezer a month ago.

I hope we have enough players in June. tb

Future Events

7 July: Jassen

The hard core Jassers will be contacted; everybody else is more than welcome to join us. Please contact Trudi on 56 28 019 just to make sure there are enough players and we do play at the clubhouse!

11 August: Jassen

This time on the second Sunday, because we are having the National Day Dinner on the 3rd August:

The hard core Jassers will be contacted; everybody else is more than welcome to join us. Please contact Trudi on 56 28 019 just to make sure there are enough players and we do play at the clubhouse!

1st August bonfire

Let's meet on Petone Beach for our yearly bonfire. There will be hot drinks and sausages to keep us warm.

As every year, we still need to secure a fire permit and count on decent to good weather, so will confirm the event closer to the time.

3rd August: National Day Dinner

We will celebrate our National Day with a nice dinner at the Club house. More details will follow.

July-December 2013

The committee is busy organising the fondue night, tidying up administrative matters from the AGM and of course the shares sale. They will get together soon to plan our social calendar and it will be posted out as soon as possible. June is the Swiss Society meeting and Cowbell Finals in Hamilton on Queens Birthday weekend. July will have an event to take us through to 1 August dinner and Bonfire. September will most likely be our second Fondue Night and we will be planning something new for October. Now that we have three francophones in the committee, we may try and get you some flavours of the Welschland. Let us know quickly if you have any suggestions. OS

Weekend in the Waitakere Ranges 22-24 March

After years of enjoying club weekends at Ruhapehu, it was decided to go somewhere else this year. That somewhere else ended up as a weekend at Whatipu Lodge at the north entrance of the Manukau Harbour in the Waitakeres.

The weekend was a joint effort between the Auckland and Hamilton clubs and we ended up with good support from both camps.

Friday night we had about 30 people there and enjoyed a lovely afternoon (at least the early birds did) with walks up the hill, down to the lighthouse or just around the lovely surroundings of the lodge, before settling down for BBQ and lots of R+R.

A tramp was organised for Saturday and a good number of us took off at 9am.

Swiss club news

The first part was all uphill through lovely bush and beautiful views over the coastal hills. Some of us thought we could see Mt Taranaki but I only made it down to Mt Kariori and a bit further down the coast. After about 2.5 hours, we arrived at the other end of the range and we stopped for quite an extensive lunch break, thinking it would be an easy stroll along the beach back to the Lodge.

Well, it took us half an hour through soft sand out to the tidal, firmer sand and then it went on for another 2 hours for some of us to get home. The beach is just fantastic, with the hills close in and a swampy tidal strip between beach and hills, but a good number of us arrived back with some very tired bodies.

The social part of Saturday kicked in with a fondue dinner and a few drinks. A lot of wisdom was exchanged before the lights went out.

Sunday was a leisure day, with some taking off to the hills, the caves or the beach, while others just leisured around the Lodge. Most of us left after lunch and I certainly thought it was a very successful weekend, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Auckland team for their input into this lovely outing. Have a look at the Auckland report, I suspect you will read more about this there. Let's keep this activity on our agenda.

Cowbell Semi-Final

The Cowbell Semi-Final between the Auckland and Hamilton Clubs was held on Sunday 21st April on a very wet day at Swisscraft. The Auckland contingent arrived very promptly and after quick refreshments, the bowling got underway. Auckland had already won the shooting and the bowling was very close, but went Hamilton's way. The cards also went Hamilton's way, so after some lengthy discussion, Auckland conceded the shotput. Maybe our big, strong men put them off?? Hamilton now look forward to the final against the Taranaki Club on Queen's Birthday weekend. Thank you to the Auckland group for participating and having to put up with storm-like conditions in Hamilton.

Hamilton Club AGM

This was held on the same day following the cowbell competition. Most of the people waited around and played cards or enjoyed the delicious afternoon tea on offer, but a few members braved the storm and joined us at 4pm. We had 26 members attend, four more than last year. The meeting followed the usual protocol and whilst we had no resignations during the year and no new nominations for this year, we will go ahead with the same committee and office-bearers for the coming year. Thank you to everyone who attended and offered their on-going support to the committee and club.

Forthcoming Events

Card Evenings will be held at the Union Parish Church, Queen St, Cambridge, commencing promptly at 7.30pm. The four top scores will count towards the overall prize.

Friday, 7th June: Third Card Evening

Friday, 21st June: Fourth Card Evening

Friday, 5th July: Fifth and Final Card Evening, with Overall Prize and Trophy Presentation

Sunday, 28th July – First of August Celebration.

This day-time function has proved very popular to celebrate our National Day, so we are again planning to have a lunch time family meal at the Matangi Hall.

A newsletter and booking form will be sent out prior to the function.—AZ

Weekend 23-25 March: Whatipu with the Hamilton Club

When the notice went out for the combined Hamilton/Auckland Swiss clubs weekend getaway, my first thought was – where on earth is Whatipu?

Having lived in Auckland my entire life I felt a little dumb upon doing some research, to find this place IS in fact in Auckland. Time to destination from our dwelling in Kaukapakapa was 1 hour 31min which I thought could easily double knowing Friday night traffic through Auckland.

So "yes" I replied "we will there, but we will be arriving late". "No worries" Tanja replied we will keep dinner for you.

The drive was actually no problem and after passing through Titirangi we immediately felt way out of town and enjoyed the somewhat narrow and windy journey through bush and past beaches. It was a delight to reach the Lodge which on first appearance looks like a group of old school buildings.

The BBQ was on and we were quickly welcomed with the plates full of wurst & salat, followed by Mum's fabulous Zwetschge Wähe.

Most settled in for an early night, because they had big plans for the next day. Up bright and early we were – thanks to the resident rooster. Breakfast was had, lunches made and suddenly the camp was empty as a large group set off on a four hour hike. Some set off on smaller walks to the beach and lighthouse, and others remained behind to take care of camp.

It seems the four hour hike was somewhat underestimated and it was more like a six hour one as the walkers re-entered camp midafternoon.

Swiss club news

No sooner than they were back, preparations began for the evening's Fondue dinner. Many thanks, Hamilton for this very enjoyable meal.

After dinner, the cards were out for the Jass enthusiasts and a game or two of billiards was also enjoyed.

Sunday arrived all too soon (that rooster again). We all set off for a walk to the caves after breakfast and then it was tidy up and homeward bound.

Thank you to the organisers for the welcome, the food, the friendly company and the stunning surroundings. We would definitely go back again.

Friday 05 April: Pub night in Howick

Our pub night in the 'Basalt' attracted a group of nine Swiss and their friends. It proved a good venue for the 'locals' out East.

Friday 12 April Jassen

There were 19 people which is a good turnout, but one more would be even better – why don't YOU come next time, then we don't have the table of six that some of us do not like!

Sunday 21 April: Cowbell Semi Final in Hamilton

We did try hard! 11 of us went down to fight for that cowbell. And we had already won the shooting, hooray! Very close at the bowling – we lost by just two points with the last ball by Hamilton. Despite our most experienced cardplayers doing their best, we were beaten there too. The very heavy downpours made for muddy grounds which were unsuitable for stone throwing. Looking at all the muscular young competitors from the Hamilton club, we decided we would not have had a chance. So we gave the point to them. Which means that Hamilton will compete at the final at the Society AGM. Good luck Hamilton!!

Monday 29 April: Annual General Meeting Auckland Swiss Club

Some 40 members attended our AGM. Thank you for coming.

Yeah right, said Adrian, who conducted it efficiently like he had never done anything else in his life. He had been thrown in at the deep end: We had re-elected him as vice president last April. The next month Marcel the president told us he was leaving Auckland, so by June Adrian had settled into his new role. We are very fortunate to have such a committed and skilled leader, and thanked him. The club is doing well, with many enthusiastic and hard working members in the various sections, including shooting, jassen, Swiss and Knusprig, Farm maintenance, and us 'general' ones. The accounts are healthy and well-kept by Carmen. The largest expense next year will be an upgrade of the last 300m of road to the farm; we had a choice between two variations, and elected to go for the less expensive one. Keep fingers crossed it will last the 5-8 years that we expect it to. Our Edith Hess received a special thanks including a gold medal. Edith has done far more for the club than is expected of anyone: Committee member, chief cook, floral artist, decorator of halls, networker, and friend to us all. She has resigned from the committee. We are not quite sure how many years she did it – forty is probably a good guess. Fortunately though she is not leaving the club, and has promised us help when needed. We can even make use of her hospitality and have our committee meetings at her place – looking forward to more baking!

The elections brought us three new committee members: Alexandra Beskid Jung and Martin Beskid will share the role of vice president. Sabine Wyss is going to join us, as a Swiss speaking French. Neat to have young people, we welcome you and look forward to run this great club together. The evening concluded with Edith's 'last supper', beautifully presented cold cut meats and cakes.

Friday 03 May: Film evening at the Danish house

After some funnier movies, "Der Verdingbub", the movie we watched in the latest instalment of our Film Evening, dealt with a much more sinister topic and a dark chapter of Swiss history. Verdingkinder were orphaned children or children living in whatever the authorities deemed to be troubled families, who were taken away and put into new families to live with. More often than not they had to work incredibly hard, were treated like slaves and had to suffer beatings and other physical and psychological abuse.

This hushed up practice that took place from 1800 until 1960 became prominent recently, when the Bundesrat issued a formal apology for those blatant violations of human dignity. The thousands of Verdingkinder still alive are yet to be compensated for the unpaid work and the mental-health problems resulting from their treatment.

"Der Verdingbub" tells the story of two of those children. Max an orphan, whose only possible retreat from the horrors of everyday life is his beloved accordion and Berteli who was taken away from her widowed mother are placed on the same farm. Life is hard and full of deprivation and the farmer, his wife and his son take out their frustrations on Max and Berteli more and more often. While their relationship is hostile at first, they soon build a companionship which becomes for both the only thing making life bearable, especially their shared dream of leaving the misery for a much better life in Argentina. Whereas most of the people in the village turn a blind eye to what's going on at the farm, a new teacher's decision to intervene bears tragic consequences.

Swiss club news

Although heavy to digest, it was good to see a thought provoking film for once and the gloomy atmosphere was quickly brightened by the wonderful Wähe we were treated to by Erika and Edith.

Saturday 11 May:

SWISS MARKET DAY

On a sunny Saturday 11 May, people flocked to the Danish house to see the wares of the Swiss community.

The "Zuckerwatte" guy next to the carousel offered his sweet welcome in the courtyard. The coffee queue was long but swift, and there was fresh juice too. The two bakers offered fresh bread, Nussgipfel, Berliners, buns and Cremeschnitte to have with it. The meander along the stalls was sprinkled with fragmented conversations with old acquaintances, their friends and family, a glance at the displayed health elixirs, dogfood, lebkuchen, light therapy machines, homemade salad dressing, sauerkraut, vinegar, scarves and jewellery, Swiss tools, chocolate, Swiss cheese, news, carvings, Rivella, measuring rulers, a brief inquiry on price, origin, decision made, purchase.

People spilled out the side door to the food stalls and settled for a sausage or raclette around the tables set up under the canopy, and took the chance to conclude that conversation.

Thank you for a wonderful event. Thank you to the stallholders and the Yodellers who made this market so very Swiss.
