Embassy News

Dear fellow Swiss citizens,
I am the new Vice Consul at the Embassy in Wellington and would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself. I have arrived to my new assignment a few days ago in mid-June and am replacing Gloria Guigno who has left for Stuttgart.

New Zealand has always been on top of my bucket list of countries to visit, and I am very excited to be here. So far, Wellington has exceeded my expectations, it is an extremely beautiful city, and the warmth and friendliness of the locals is unparalleled!

My employment with EDA started over 10 years ago; my first post was in Atlanta, USA, then I transferred to Brasília, Brazil and thereafter I was sent to Pretoria, South Africa. I feel very privileged to be able to get to know such beautiful countries, which would otherwise be difficult to visit as they are far from Switzerland.

I am accompanied by my family: My two sons Orlando (6 years) and Leonel (2 years) as well as my husband, who takes care of us and is a musician / producer. Our dog Lola will hopefully be able to join us in a few months.

We are looking forward to meeting you all in person soon, either at the Embassy or at one of the events of the Swiss Clubs. If there is anything you'd like to discuss, please do not hesitate to call or email me, I'll be happy to help!
