"NATIONALE REVUE"

is the title by which the Monthly "Pro Helvetia" will be known in future.

The Christmas number is a first-class production and contains a mass of entertaining and instructive matter. Prose and verses by modern Swiss authors and the lavishness of the illustrations are features the attractiveness of which none of us can resist. There is an article on Giovanni Giacometti, with reproductions of some of his works. We have not seen any of the originals, but we believe that reproductions in black and white can hardly do justice to the wonderful harmony in colours claimed for this artist. How much more pleasing to the eye are the few plates exhibiting typical winter scenery.—The local reports from the many tourist centres in Switzerland testify to the evolution and importance of our winter sports which seem to exercise a fascination all over Europe.

The "Nationale Revue" is published monthly in Zurich and the yearly subscription rate is Frs. 20.—
