CONCERT-NEWS.

Our compatriot, M. Paul Baumgartner, whose Pianoforte Recital at the Aeolian Hall in April of this year met with such a brilliant success, will give another concert in the same Hall on Monday, 21st inst. at 8.30 p.m.

M. Baumgartner is one of our famous artists, and we hope that a great number of our readers will be glad of this opportunity of listening to him on Monday.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Union Helvetia
on Sunday, October 6th at Hendon Park Cemetery.

Summer time is over and with the shortening of daylight hours, chill and mist, one is reluctantly drawn nearer to home and all, that is bound up with it! It was therefore a fitful occasion for the Members of our Society to remember those, that were left behind, in paying homage to our old friends who have gone home to their last resting place. They are well cared for in our graves amid the evergreens of the cemetery. —

This year again Pasteurs Hoffmann-de Visme and Hahn conducted the Service in such a homely way, that we truly have to be thankful for their unremitting devotion.

Every year more names are added to that large white Marblestone and with it the attendance grows, relatives and friends making up the solemn gathering!

Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Indermaur, Mr. and Mrs. Kummer, Mr. Walthardt, Mr. Kipfer and family, Mr. Lehrian, Mr. Haesler, Mr. and Mrs. Trottmann, Mrs. Arnold and family, Mr. Friberg and Son, Mrs. Neiger, Miss Ruegg, Mrs. Feierabend, Mrs. Heuer, Mrs. and Miss Wullschlegler, Mrs. Delevaux and friends, the Steward and Secretary and many others.

A. Indermaur.
