EDITOR'S POST-BAG.

1st December, 1945.

The Editor of the "Swiss Observer."

Dear Sir,

In your issue dated November 30th you announced, in the column "News at Random," the appointment of Dr. Hans Roy Ganz as Swiss Minister in Warsaw, adding that this was, as far as you knew, the first time that an avowed socialist had been made an extraordinary and plenipotentiary minister.

May I be allowed to point out that the Swiss Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary in Belgrade (Jugoslavia), Dr. Zellweger, who has now been en poste there for quite some months, is an equally avowed socialist and active member of the socialist party.

Yours faithfully,
Gottfried Keller.
