THE "SWISS OBSERVER" TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO.

We give below a summary of some of the events which have taken place in the Swiss Colony twenty-one years ago. (January to December 1925.)

January, 1925: A meeting is held in London for the creation of a "Deutschschweizerische Kirchengemeinde". In the chair is Mr. A. Muller.

Children's Xmas Party, attended by 130 children, takes place at the Union Helvetia Club, 1, Gerrard Place, W.1. Mr. Maeder welcomes the little visitors.

February, 1925: The Colony hears of the death of General Ulrich Wille, the third General, who in our history was called upon to lead our army. He was born on April 5th, 1848, the scion of an old family of Neuchâtel. His father, Dr François Wille, lived in La Sagne, and later on moved to Meilen, on the lake of Zurich, where the parental home became a spiritual centre, including, amongst others, Gottfried Keller, Arnold Böcklin, Franz Liszt, Richard Wagner and C. F. Meier. Ulrich Wille studied law at the universities of Zurich, Halle, Leipzig and Heidelberg, obtaining the degree of doctor of law. Afterwards he started his military service in the artillery and in 1871 received his brevet as lieutenant; as such he took part in the frontier occupation during the Franco-Prussian war. For thirteen years he was a member of the Instruction Corps, having decided on a military career, he quickly advanced to the rank of captain, major and lieutenant-colonel. In 1883 he changed over to the cavalry which branch of our army he completely reorganised. In the year 1900 he was promoted to the rank of colonel in which capacity he commanded the 6th division, and four years later he advanced to army-corps commander. On August 6th, 1914, he was elected by the two Federal Chambers to the supreme command of the Swiss army with the rank of General. On conclusion of the frontier occupation in 1918, General Willie retired from the army which he had well served.
