NEWS FROM THE COLONY.

We hear that the Consistoire of the Swiss Church has appointed Pasteur Claude Reverdin from Geneva, as successor to Pasteur M. Pradervand.

Pasteur Reverdin, who is taking up his ministry at the end of this year, is the son of a medical practitioner and married to the daughter of colonel de Haller, of Geneva, they have two children, a boy and a girl.

Dr. Arnold Kunzli, has taken up the position, as London Correspondent of the "National Zeitung," of Basle, in succession to the late Dr. E. Spuhler.

Dr. Kunzli has previously occupied the post of foreign correspondent of the "National Zeitung" in Rome, and at one time was connected with the "Flüchtlingslager" organisation.

SWISS HOLIDAY EXPERIENCES.

The Holiday Season having now come to an unexpected end, the Editor would be glad, if some of the readers, who were privileged in spending their vacation in our country, would write short accounts of their experiences, pleasant or unpleasant, for the benefit of those, who, for some reason or other, were unable to undertake the journey to the "old country."
