Federal

The two Federal Chambers (National Council and States Council) at their combined sitting, have elected, on the 11th of this month, M. Enrico Celio, President of the Swiss Confederation for the year 1948.

Federal Councillor Nobs has been elected Vice-President.

The new President was born on June 19th, 1889, at Ambri di Quito, in the Leventina valley. After absolving the local schools and the College at Balerna he completed his early education at Milan and Einsiedeln, at the same time as Federal-Councillor Etter. Afterwards he studied literature and law at the Universities of Florence, Milan and Freiburg i.Ue.

Returning home, Dr. Celio was entrusted with the editorship of the catholic-conservative "Popolo e Libertà," and later on practised as an advocate in Biasca.

In 1924, he was for the first time elected a member of the National Council, but in 1932 he had to relinquish his seat on being chosen — in succession to Cattori — President of the Ticinese Government as the Constitution forbids contemporaneous membership of the Federal Parliament.

On the death of Federal Councillor G. Motta, he entered, in 1940, the Federal Government. He was President of the Swiss Confederation in 1943.

Owing to the resignation of Federal-Councillor Stampfli, a new member of the Federal Government had to be elected.

There were two candidates in the field, namely: Rodolphe Rubattel (Liberal) member of the government of the canton of Vaud, and States-Councillor G. Wenk (Socialist) a member of the cantonal government of Basle. Rubattel received 138 votes and Wenk 62 votes. The former was therefore declared as elected. The following also received votes: Speiser 21, Müller (Amriswil) 4, and Wey 3.

Federal-Councillor Rodolphe Rubattel was born on the 4th of December, 1896, at Villarzel, in the Broye valley. On completion of his school education he studied law at the University in Lausanne where he obtained the degree of doctor of law. He then took up journalism as a profession, and in turn was Editor of the "Feuille d'Avis de Montreux," "Tribune de Lausanne," "Feuille d'Avis de Lausanne" and "La Revue."

In 1933, he entered the Grand Council of the canton of Vaud as a liberal, and eleven years later (1944) he became a member of the cantonal government, which post he occupied up to the date of his election as a Federal-Councillor.

The Belgian Premier, Monsieur P. H. Spaak, who, on behalf of the Belgian Government and the Belgian people, presented the Swiss people with a present of three grammes of radium, was received at the Federal Palais in Berne by Dr. Ph. Etter, President of the Swiss Confederation and members of the Government.

Monsieur Spaak, in handing over the precious gift, said that Belgium was happy to make this presentation as a thank-offering for all that Switzerland has done for the Belgian people during and after the war.

Dr. Etter, in accepting the present, thanked the Minister for the beau geste of his people, and expressed the wish for the further welfare and prosperity of the Belgian nation. [A.T.S.]

The death is reported from Berne of Monsieur Arthur de Pury. The deceased was a citizen of Neuchâtel. He studied law at the Universities of Neuchâtel and Leipzig and later on entered the Diplomatic Service.

As Secretary of Legation he occupied posts in Vienna, Berlin and Washington, and from 1912-1914 he was Counsellor of Legation in St. Petersburg. For four years (1918-1922) Monsieur de Pury was Swiss Minister to Argentine, and from 1922-1942 Swiss Minister at the Hague. He retired from the Diplomatic Service a few years ago. [A.T.S.]

Dr. Albert Picot (Lib.) Geneva, hitherto Vice-President, was elected President of the National Council for 1947/48.

The new "Speaker" was born in 1882 at Geneva, and studied law at the Universities of Geneva, Berlin and Paris, and from 1907-1931 practised as an advocate in Geneva. In 1923, he was elected as a member of the Grand Council of the canton Geneva, and eight years later (1931) he entered the Cantonal government.

Dr. Picot became a member of the National Council in 1935 as a liberal-democrat. He was one of the founders of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique.

J. Escher (cath.-cons.) Brigue, was elected Vice-President.

The States Council elected as President its former Vice-President, Dr. Alphons Iten (cath.-cons.) from Zug.

The new President was born in 1898 and hails from Unteraegeri. He studied law and national economy at the Universities of Zurich and Fribourg, and afterwards practised as an advocate in Zug. He entered the "Kantonsrat" in 1922 and in 1930 became States Prosecutor of the canton of Zug. Five years later (1935) Dr. Iten was elected a member of the States Council.

The University of Lausanne has just honoured a remarkable lady by conferring upon Sister Julia Hofmann the degree of doctor, honoris causa. In a smaller way Sister Hofmann has been a Dr. Barnardo of Switzerland. Her work began in 1899, when she took into her home two destitute children. It was a spontaneous action prompted by pity without any thought of what the future held in store for her. But neighbours were aware what she had done: soon it was common gossip that there was in their midst a lady who cared for poor, sick children. Other children were brought to her and succoured. Larger, and still larger quarters became necessary. Then a home was built for these abandoned children, but more opportunities came her way. There followed a home for women and then a home for men. To-day "Ebenezer," as the institution is called, cares for three hundred men, women and children. Hundreds have been rescued and transformed by the love and labour of Sister Hofmann, now in her eightieth year. Funds have been provided by friends and well-wishers, and so the work has been maintained. Now the time has come, greatly to her sorrow, for her to pass the work to other hands, but not before the University has given testimony to the appreciation of the Swiss people.

THE SWISS MINISTER'S JOURNEY TO INDIA.

As already mentioned in the English Press, Monsieur Paul Ruegger has left London for India.

The following communiqué concerning the Minister's journey has been published in Berne:—

"Le 8 octobre 1947, l'Assemblée Fédérale a donné son approbation au message du Conseil Fédéral proposant l'établissement de représentations diplomatiques suisses auprès de l'Inde et du Pakistan, du Royaume de Siam et d'autres Etats voisins.

Cette décision de l'Assemblée Fédérale pourra prendre effet le 14 janvier 1948, lorsque le délai de référendum facultatif, prévu par la Constitution, aura expiré.

A la suite des contacts préliminaires entre le Gouvernement Fédéral et le Gouvernement de l'Inde et au cours desquels M. Krishna Menon, actuellement Haut-Commissaire de l'Inde à Londres, a été reçu en février dernier à Berne, le Conseil Fédéral a autorisé et chargé M. Paul Ruegger, Ministre de Suisse, de se rendre dans la seconde moitié de décembre, pour une mission spéciale, à la Nouvelle Delhi pour préparer l'établissement de rapports diplomatiques futurs et en vue de développer les relations d'amitié entre les deux Pays. Cette décision répond à une invitation adressée au Ministre Ruegger, par l'entremise du Haut-Commissaire de l'Inde à Londres, de la part du Gouvernement de l'Inde.

Il est prévu que le Ministre Ruegger étendra sa mission spéciale aussi au Dominion du Pakistan. Son absence de Londres sera de quelques semaines."
