Mrs B. H. PFIRTER †.

On February 17th, 1947, after a short illness, died Bessie Harriet, wife of Mr. Henry Pfirter, of 12, Kinnaird Avenue, Bromley, Kent, the well-known member of the London Swiss Colony.

All those who knew Mrs. Pfirter will mourn in her the loss of a very loveable and gracious lady. A devoted wife and mother, she endeared herself to all who came in contact with her. She possessed that old-world charm and courtesy which is so rarely found these days. Many a young Swiss who experienced the privilege of her hospitality will remember her gentle charm, her unflinching cheerfulness and her practical common-sense. Peace be to her ashes.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. Pfirter and his family.

(J.J.F.S.)

The funeral took place on February 21st with the beautiful and solemn rites of the Church of England.

J. M. H. MANGE †.

Jean Marc Henri Mange a été conduit à Golders Green le 13 février; M. le pasteur Prader-vand parla en termes émus du défunt enlevé si subitement à l'affection des siens.

Né à Genève en 1872, il se fixa à Londres en 1900 et s'y établit quelques années plus tard; en 1933, il eut le chagrin de perdre sa femme, mais trouva en ses six enfants un constant réconfort.

Resté profondément attaché à notre pays, il laisse le souvenir d'une grande boubomie, d'une nature généreuse, et d'un fidèle ami.

A sa famille, tant en Suisse qu'à Londres, nous exprimons notre bien sincère sympathie.
