The Swiss Ski Championships (Long Distance and Relay Races), Ste. Croix, February 12th/13th.

The fact that the Swiss National Ski Races are occasionally divided into two parts, one consisting of Alpine and the other of Nordic events, gives an opportunity to smaller resorts, which would be unable to undertake the organization of anything so complex as a full programme of races, to organize one part of these championships. The Jura, which is a favourite district for long distance races and ski-jumping, is particularly suited to the Nordic events of the National Championships.

The Swiss Federation of Ski Clubs has entrusted the organization of these important competitions, to be held on February 12th and 13th, 1955, to the resort of Ste. Croix/Les Rasses.

Ste. Croix, which is known all over the world for its industries that export each year many million francs' worth of cinema apparatuses, gramophone and wireless sets, not to mention the famous "musical boxes" which are a delight to young and old alike, is connected to the plain by the Yverdon-Ste. Croix branch line and by excellent roads through Yverdon and Pontarlier. The Ste. Croix Ski Club is one of the oldest in Switzerland; it was founded fifty years ago, in the early days of this sport, which has grown at such a rapid pace in the Jura as well as in the Alps.

The routes chosen for the Nordic events pass through the beautiful forests of the district of Les Rasses, at the foot of the Chasseron (height 5,280 ft.) and well-situated enclosures have been set aside for the spectators. The jumping will be held at the Châble jump, which is one of the best in Switzerland, having been made shortly before the last world war under the supervision of the Norwegian world champion ski-jumper Birger Ruud.
