NEWS FROM THE COLONY

CITY SWISS CLUB NEWS

After the summer break, the Club resumed its activities with a first meeting on Tuesday, 19th September 1967 at the Dorchester.

The forthcoming events of the coming months will be as follows: 18th October, Club Meeting (Dr. T. F. Gaskell, Scientific Adviser of the Information Department of BP will be talking about North Sea Gas). 24th November: 102nd Annual Banquet and Ball. (A date well worth keeping in mind). 11th December: Christmas Dinner. 23rd January 1968: Card Evening. 19th March: Club evening with Speaker. 19th March: Soirée Familiale. 30th April: Annual General Meeting. 21st May: Card Evening. 5th July: Provisional date of Dinner-Dance.

Members will, as is customary, be sent details in good time before each event.

We are very fortunate in having Dr. T. F. Gaskell of the British Petroleum Company as our guest speaker in October, and we hope that a great number of members will make this an unusually successful evening. The subject is extremely topical and we shall have the chance, no doubt, to ask some interesting questions.

Prospect of an interesting evening with the N.S.H.

The London Group of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique will resume activities on Thursday, 28th September, with an Open Meeting at the Swiss Hostel for Girls in Hampstead. It promises to be an interesting evening, and the Council hope that a large number of members will come, especially French-speaking ones, for the Talk will be in French. It will be given by Madame Marguerite Déboeuf, and it will be richly illustrated with slides. (See advertisement.)
