NEWS FROM THE COLONY

SWISS CLUB DUNFERMLINE

A Farewell Dinner was held at the Gartwhinzean Hotel in honour of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frick who are leaving to take up residence in Macclesfield. Thirty-eight members attended to make this a very happy evening, although it was mixed with sadness as everyone knew the great loss those two dear friends would be to the Dunfermline Swiss Club.

Mr. Frick was one of the founder members and served on the Committee first as Hon. Secretary and then as President for 10 years, until he was appointed Vice-Consul of our country, looking after the interests of all our compatriots in Scotland. This honour could not have been bestowed on a more worthy or capable person. In spite of the many years he has lived here, he has never forgotten his homeland and was always a true Swiss at heart. At this point, the members decided to make him Honorary President of the Club.

A suitable gift to mark the occasion was presented to Mr. Frick by Miss Sylvia Burgisser, and Mrs. Frick received a bouquet of flowers from the hands of Miss Meta Vogel. Our President, Mr. Vogt, on behalf of all present, conveyed good wishes for their future and thanked

Mr. Frick for all the work he had done so willingly to make the Club successful.

Mr. Frick thanked the members heartily for the beautiful gift and the kind thoughts that went with it. He assured us that it would be cherished and would always remind them of Scotland and the many happy times they had spent among their friends they were leaving behind in Dunfermline.

BIRTHDAYS

Before wishing many happy returns to our readers whose birthdays will occur within the next fortnight, we should like to remember Fred Stauffer, the "Swiss Observer's" faithful Editor for so long; he died three years ago, on 29th July, and we treasure his memory.

On the Swiss National Day, Mr. Jacques Regamey will be 77, and on 4th August, Mr. Bernhard Truninger (Zurich) will be 61. Mrs. A. Schmid, formerly of Glendower fame, and Dr. Hugo Rast will both have their birthdays on 6th August; the latter will be 77. On 10th August, Mrs. A. Bachofen will be celebrating her birthday. Best wishes!
