ONE SINGLE STRIKE IN 1967

The industrial undertakings in Switzerland numbered 13,499 at the end of 1967, a decrease of 409 in twelve months. There was only one strike in the whole year as against two in 1966. It affected the wood and glass industry, 65 men (38) and cost 690 days (62). The reason was the conclusion of a collective employment agreement, and the strike was settled by negotiation. This is the lowest number of strikes since 1927.

Nearly 43,000 entries were made in the trade register in 1967, bringing the total of 189,225 as against 184,940 at the end of 1966. There were 82,254 individual firms, 10,979 collective companies, 3,957 Kommanditgesellschaften, 53,367 joint-stock companies, 2,608 limited companies, 13,512 co-operatives, 131 public institutions, 1,562 societies, 17,428 foundations, 3,243 branches of Swiss and 365 of foreign undertakings.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

that 1.4 million kilograms of old telephone directories were collected in the year 1966/67, realising enough money to get 100 television sets for schools in poor Communes, 45 in the German-speaking part, 33 in the French-speaking and 22 in the Italian-speaking part of Switzerland?

that the Swiss cigarette industry produced 18.6 milliard cigarettes in 1967, of which 87.9% were filter "fags", and that the figure was much lower than that of the previous year when there had been a drop owing to an increase in tax of 40%?

that the import of meat went back by 65% of animals for slaughter (from 23,000 to just under 8,000) and that of meat pieces and special cuts and specialities increased by 14%, and that import of poultry, game and rabbits went up 1% to 47,047.6 metric tons?

that the number of match producers has gone back from 37 factories in 1895 to 16 in 1923 and to 3 at the present, though the number of workers employed decreased only from 388 to 300, and that every day some 32 million matches are used in Switzerland?

that 1967 was an excellent year for tobacco growers in the Ticino, especially as regards the quality, and that the production value amounted to 1.2 million francs?

that the consumption of bread has gone back considerably over the past few years, whereas that of pastries and other Feingebäck has gone up, and that the daily consumption per person is now 133 gr., as compared with the wartime ration of 250 gr.?

that in 1966 2,779 candidates took part in the federal medical examinations for doctors, dentists, vets and pharmacists, and that the number went up to 3,067 last year, of whom 18.6% failed?

that the 11 helicopters of "Heliswiss" spent 3,755 hours in the air both in Switzerland and abroad, which was an increase of 30%, and that nearly a third of those hours were used on transport flights, that the machines were chartered for 833 hours, that 599 hours were spent on surveys from the air, that over 122 hours were given over to the Swiss Alpine Rescue Service (Rettungsflugwacht), and that there was an increase in freight transport from 4.8 to 7.8 million kilos in one year?
