opened at the Royal College of Art in Kensington during a reception by Dr. Albert Weitnauer, the Swiss ambassador in London.

A colourful and striking collection of posters on view touched on a wide variety of themes and presented an original spectacle. There is more art and ingenuity than meets the imagination in designing a good poster to advertise a ballpoint pen, a shoe, or even a bottle of mineral water . . .

SWISS CATHOLIC MISSION

In a circular, the Chairman of the Committee of Swiss Catholics in London, announced that the traditional fund-raising Christmas Draw would not be organised this year. Proceeds from the Draw had diminished from £333 in 1970 to £240 last year partly because of the sharply increased cost of printing Draw tickets and also because of increased postage rates. The Swiss Catholic Mission shall thus rely on the generosity of its supporters during the coming Christmas period.
