PASTOR DIETLER'S FAREWELL SERVICE

The Swiss Church at Endell Street was packed on Sunday, 28th January, for Pastor Marcel Dietler's last service in ten years of Ministry in London. Pastor Dietler, who left Switzerland on the same day, presided over a healing ceremony. Whatever one may think of the theological orthodoxy of healing by laying-on of hands, it certainly exerted a powerful attraction on the parishioners of the Swiss protestant churches. After hearing a sermon during which Pastor Dietler reasserted his faith in the healing ministry of the church by mentioning living examples of providential miracles, at least three-quarters of the congregation knelt before the preacher, his two Protestant colleagues Pastors A. Nicod and D. Muller and Father A. Bossard, Chaplain of the Swiss Catholic Mission, for a health-giving blessing.

Pastor Dietler now begins a new ministry in Nidau, in the suburbs of Biel. His successor in London has not yet been named, and Pastor Uli Stefan, the suffragan minister, will for the time being take charge of the parish with the help of the other Swiss ministers in London.
