OBITUARIES

EDWIN HUG

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Edwin Hug, of 27 Crespiigny Road, NW4. He died a few weeks ago, but we have only just learnt of his death. He joined the Swiss Mercantile Society in 1932 and the City Swiss Club in 1953. He was a banker by profession.

We send our sincere sympathy to his wife and family.

ERNEST BRYNER

Mr. Ernest Bryner of 25 The Loning, Colindeep Lane, Hendon, NW9 died on 7th April shortly before his 80th birthday. Mr. Bryner, who had suffered a coronary thrombosis two weeks before he died, worked for Sulzer Brothers in Winterthur. He came to England in 1920 and continued working for Sulzer Brothers.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. Bryner's widow, daughter and two grandchildren.

LEOPOLDINE SOMMER

It is with great personal sadness that your editor announces the death of his mother on 6th May, after a lengthy illness patiently born.

Mrs. Sommer, although born in Austria, was fiercely proud of the Swiss nationality she acquired by marriage shortly before the war.

The following readers will have their birthdays in the near future: Mr. E. Gysin (Basle) will be 87 on 9th June. Miss R. Preiswerk (Basle) will have her 72nd birthday on 11th of June. MR. A. GANNA 95

By an unfortunate error, we reported in a previous issue that Mr. A. Ganna, of 67 Maple Road, Hayes, Middlesex, would be 85 on 24th April. The fact is that he has celebrated his 95th birthday, and we wish him many happy returns of the day even though belatedly.

He was born at Dangio, Aquila, in the Ticino and came to this country in 1907. He first worked as a waiter in London (Claridges and Adelphi Hotel) and then went into the woodwork trade. He became a skilled cabinet maker. He married the cashier of the Adelphi Hotel in 1907, and when his wife died in 1956, he retired. He remarried later and went to live in Devon for 14 years. But now he is back in the South, living with one of his six daughters. He also has three sons, 15 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Our apologies, special wishes for good health and many happy returns of his 95th birthday!
