but also formed part of a detailed discussion in the Commission of the Swiss Abroad. The whole matter is being studied by a special commission under Mr. Ugo Guidi, Swiss lawyer from Milan and a member of the Commission of the Swiss Abroad, with National Councillor (Mrs.) L. Spreng from Fribourg, herself mother of daughters married to foreigners, Mr. O. Schuerch, head of the Police Section of the Federal Department of Justice and Police, and Mr. L. Paillard, Deputy-Director of the Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad in Berne, as members. It will take a very long time to come to a conclusion, for it is a constitutional matter and many points have to be considered, a possible flood of dual national, international law, military service etc. For the time being, the whole problem is taken care of by this group of very competent personalities, and any progress made will be duly publicised.
