BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

We have just heard that Mr Eugene Kaufeler, of 2 Porchester Terrace, London W2, celebrated his 70th birthday on 3rd November. He is well known in the Swiss community as doyen of the Venerable Company of Head Chefs in London, having been the chef des cuisines of the Dorchester Hotel until his retirement some time ago. Though belated, our good wishes are none the less sincere.

On 10th December, Mr Henry Suter, of 53 St. James's Drive, London SW17, will be celebrating his 90th birthday. Ad multos annos!

Mr F. Burri will be 66 on 2nd December, and Mrs C. Renz will have her birthday on 3rd of the month. Mr M. G. Ehram will be 82 on 14th and Mr C. Imboden will attain the same age on 20th December. Mrs L. Reulinger (Basle) will celebrate her birthday on 21st of the month. Mr C. A. Fuchs will be 86 on Boxing Day. On New Year's Eve, Mrs E. Crack will have her birthday, and Mr E. C. Schmid will be 84 on the same day.

Mr & Mrs R. Suess will celebrate their wedding anniversary on 19th December and Mr & Mrs Forrester on Boxing Day.

Congratulations and best wishes to all these readers and any others of whose birthdays and anniversaries in December we are not aware.

CAN YOU HELP THIS LAD?

A 19-year-old Swiss boy who will be attending the Hotel School in Lausanne in 1980 wants to spend about six months in London from April 1979 in order to improve his English. By the time he arrives he will have his commercial school diploma.

He desperately needs a job for the duration of his stay, a job that will pay him enough to enable him to keep body and soul together while allowing him enough free time in the evenings to strenuously pursue his English studies. Ideally he would like to work in an hotel (lift boy, reception assistant, porter, kitchen hand) — you name it — he'll do it but, please, remember he is a human being. A living-in post would perhaps be ideal but this is not a prerequisite. Because the young man's study activities will necessarily be in the London area any offers should ideally be from areas within at least reasonable commuting distance.

If you think you could use this young man's talents (he speaks and writes fluent German and French) please contact the editor of The Swiss Observer direct on 01-892 5920 or write to him at 43, Hartington Road, Twickenham, Middx TW1 3EL.
