Now it's farewell to the Rev Urs Steiner

THERE have been changes in London! Having said goodbye to Father Bossard of the Swiss Catholic Mission, we also had to say farewell to the Rev Urs Steiner, who has been the minister of the Swiss Protestant Church for five and a half years.

He preached his last sermon on September 18 at a combined German/French service to a well represented congregation. It was during his time that the French and German speaking parishes became united under one minister, a move that was made imperative by the impossibility to find a new French-speaking minister for the small congregation and the everlasting shortage of funds under which the church is constantly labouring.

After some anxious times, we have been able, with the help of the Federation of Swiss Churches in Berne, to find a replacement, and on October 16 the installation of the new minister, the Rev Hans Wunderli from St Gall took place at the Swiss Church in the presence of a very large congregation.

The new minister and his wife are now settling down in the manse at 1 Womersley Road, London N8, and are looking forward to meeting all the members of the French and German speaking communities in due course.

Canal junket

NO FEWER than 58 members of the Yorkshire Swiss Club were aboard when the canal cruiser "Water Prince" set off on a pleasure trip along the Leeds and Liverpool canal.

The weather was very poor, even for early September, but according to the club president Jeffrey Long spirits could not be dampened.

Perhaps those on board were well aware that they were the lucky ones - there were 26 people "standing by" in the hope of a cancelled ticket.

There was an afternoon tea served on board the boat - which negotiated two locks during the course of the afternoon, much to the delight of the children.
