This year the RhB are trying harder to promote their Steam and Nostalgia trips. The times and dates appeared on their website before the 9th January. Much play is made of the variety of trains and journeys available including organised photo stops and the guarantee of a bar on board run either by the Dampffreunde der Rhätische Bahn or the Club Engiadinais dals Amihs da la Viafier, I'll leave you all to translate the latter which is in Romansch. Here is a clue: it isn't the SRS.

There is also another four-day trip over our August Bank Holiday weekend similar to that run last year. It involves special travel arrangements and tours of RhB infrastructure. Those who went to the AGM may remember the flyers, which I obtained from the RhB. I have to say that I was somewhat disappointed to take most of them home again. Remember this is run by the Railway and includes some very special events. Now that I have whetted your appetite come along to the AGM where I hope to have the flyers available again. Otherwise check out the RhB website: www.rhb.ch
