SwissTip Good ideas and information about Switzerland from travellers.

Interested in the Roman era? Take the train to Kaiseraugst (AG), just east of Basel for a brilliant introduction to that historic period in Switzerland. A few minutes walk north of the station are the remains of a Roman fort at the point where they bridged the Rhine. A signposted 15 minute walk to the south of the station is an impressive museum and reconstructed Roman house, set in the area that was the civilian town that spread over a large area. Still standing is the amazingly preserved Theatre and the massive Amphitheatre along with several other Roman buildings. The area is large with longish walks between the individual locations, but you can hire electric bikes to whizz around.

HOTEL AMBASSADOR***

RESTAURANT CHEMINOTS - BRIG

Brig is undoubtedly one of the best gateways to the Alpine world. In less than two hours you can be anywhere from Zermatt, Saas-Fee, Chamonix (F), Stresa (I) or Interlaken.

With the opening of the new railway tunnel as part of the New Alpine Transverse (NEAT), travelling time is now one hour less from Zurich and Berne to Brig.

This is especially ideal for any day-trippers wishing to escape the fog and grey and arrive here, in sunny Valais. The train station in Brig is one of seven major junctions of the train system in Switzerland. In olden times, the Simplon line connected London with Bagdad. Still today, you can visit Italy by taking the train through the 12 mile long Simplon tunnel.

The Hotel Ambassador has a quiet central location not far from the station («Glacier Express»). You will feel at home.
