Ivan Rodrigues - News from Switzerland Travel Centre

We are pleased to inform SRS members of our new 4+1 promotion for 2013. Anyone purchasing a 4-day 1st class Swiss Pass/Saver Swiss Pass will receive an extra day free if it is for travel between 1st February/30th April and 1st November/31st December 2013. If you are planning to travel during these periods we hope you are able to take advantage of this promotion, but all journeys must be completed within the above dates. If you still haven't organized your holiday why not consider travelling at this time in order to benefit from the offer? As mentioned in December's magazine, in 2013 the Berner Oberland regional pass will no longer be available for 7 days (3-days free and 4-days reduced), or 15 days (5-days free and 10-days reduced). The new Berner Oberland pass will be available for 4, 6 and 8 days consecutive travel. It will be very similar to the standard Swiss Passes but will be cheaper, covering a wider area of travel than the previous regional pass and will also include bonus partners offering discounts on many attractions in the region. Contact us for more information. At STC we are constantly working with our partners to make Switzerland an attractive and affordable destination to visit, so we would like to hear from you with any suggestions, or feedback from previous trips, that you think may encourage more people to go to Switzerland and use the wonderful Swiss Railways network. Contact us with your ideas on railtrade@stc.co.uk This correspondence will be kept in the strictest confidence and will not be published or passed-on. We look forward to assisting you with your travel plans in 2013. ☒
