At STC we are constantly looking at developing new and exciting packages to complement our popular rail holidays. Our Grand Train Tour of Switzerland has now been extended to 13-nights allowing more leisure time at the various destinations without compromising the fantastic scenic journeys. SRS members who are already familiar with the famous iconic rides may be interested in experiencing something different. New for 2016 is our Swiss Food Discovery (running between May and October). This includes wine tasting, experiencing the hospitality of a local family with traditional Swiss cuisine, eating fondue on the summit of Mount Rigi and many other excursions. Prices start from £999 including flights, rail transfers, accommodation and other exciting experiences. Also new is our Swiss Museum Trail which includes entrance to the Olympic, Ballenberg and Einstein Museums showcasing the uniqueness that Switzerland has to offer. If you are planning to visit the Schilthorn this year, don't forget to claim your voucher for a free Martini – courtesy of STC. We look forward to assisting you with your travel plans for 2016.

A Swiss Tip for lovers of Swiss food.

Need a Swiss fix on the Wirral? After giving Zügers in Chester as a Swiss Tip in an earlier issue of Swiss Express, we were reminded that the family, originally from Schaffhausen, has a second outlet for good Swiss fare in the NW of England. Only 2 minutes walk from Bromborough Station on Merseyrail's Wirral Line is another branch of this excellent family-run business. All the usual Swiss staples are available in this outpost of the Confederation just 20 minutes by train from Central Liverpool. Be warned though – it gets busy and you may have to wait to enjoy the best meringues this side of the Jura.
